

CURRICULUM VITAE

Prof. Dr. med. Dai-Do DO is the director of Peripheral Vascular Interventions and Deputy Head of the Clinical and Interventional Angiology at the Swiss Cardiovascular Center, University of Bern, Switzerland. He graduated from Bern University in 1978 and has more than 20 years experience in percutaneous vascular interventions. Prof. Do has authored more than 100 peer-reviewed research articles on peripheral endovascular therapy and acts as faculty member as well as live case operator on many international meetings. Furthermore, he serves as a reviewer for many cardiovascular research journals.

Current position

Address

Clinical and Interventional Angiology
Cardiovascular Department
Swiss Cardiovascular Center, Inselspital
UNIVERSITY of BERN
3010 Bern
Switzerland
E-mail: dai-do.do@insel.ch

Medical education and activities

1971 - 1978

1979 - 1983

1983 - 1984

Director Peripheral Vascular Interventions

1984 -1988

1994 - 1996

1997, April

Medical school at University of Bern

Training in Internal Medicine, University of Bern

Residency in Surgery, Department of Cardiovascular Surgery, University of Bern

Resident and since 1988 chief resident of the Clinical and Interventional Angiology, Department of Medicine, University of Bern
(Director: Prof. F. Mahler)

Research Fellow, Cardiovascular Research Unit, Division of Cardiology, University of Bern (Director: Prof. T. Lüscher)

Member of tenure Staff of the Division of Angiology, Dept. of Medicine, University of Bern

1998, April Privat Dozent, University of Bern

2004, January Professor, University of Bern

Special interest

Endovascular therapy

Vascular Ultrasound

Memberships Swiss Society of Angiology

Swiss Society of Internal Medicine

Member of Editorial Board Journal of Endovascular Therapy

Bern, January 23rd, 2011